On Call Printer Service for When You Need It Most

Have plans to run a crucial print job for the boss or a big presentation due, but your printer has different ideas? Call Laserfleet, and we'll fix it fast and now! We have HP Certified technicians on call, day or night, standing by and ready to help you.

Complete Printer Service Programs

Relax, the choice is yours. Laserfleet offers three different Printer Service Programs, designed with you in mind. From Printrak, our full, cost-per-page Print Management Program, to our Modular Approach, which allows you to pick and choose only the items you need from a Program, to Service Now!, offering Service-on-Demand, we have something for everyone!

Free Telephone Technical Support

Save your company both time and money with our Free Telephone Technical Support! Instead of paying for what may be an unneeded service call, phone us first and ask to speak to one of our qualified service technicians. We will provide to you at no cost, advice regarding your particular print problem, and we may even get it repaired for you right over the telephone. FOR FREE!

Over 22 Years of Experience in the Printer and Supplies Industry

Since 1988, Laserfleet has been dedicated to successfully producing the best compatible imaging supplies and to the maintenance and repair of laser printers. We take great pride in both the products and the services that we sell. We employ only highly trained, qualified technicians and staff members, all who are subject to ongoing training and support, in order to stay up to date with the ever changing printer and supplies marketplace. At Laserfleet, you're always in good hands!
